MEMORANDUM FOR: Inspector General

SUBJECT : Relations between Audit Office and Personnel Office

REFERENCE : Your memorandum of 1 July, ER-4-2892

25X1A 1. The Office of the Auditor-in-Chief consists only of General his Assistant, and his secretary. Thus this reply to your query 25X1A concerns principally the Audit Office, a separate entity under General 25X1A direction, which works under a Headquarters TO of about [redacted] and is also responsible, with General [redacted] for recruitment and supervision of overseas auditors--at present three in FE and three in EE.

25X9

2. Your first question can be answered by a definite affirmative:
Audit Office has received good cooperation and excellent service from the Personnel Office. By the nature of the job certain prospective employees have been suggested by Audit Office (Personnel has not gone out and found them), but Personnel Office has performed to our entire satisfaction the duties incident to their enrollment. It has cooperated well in various other respects, including re-classification studies.

3. Other than would be expected as a normal executive function, officers of the Auditor-in-Chief's office and Audit Office have spent no time on personnel matters.
